Yolanda is survived by her husband, Hector F. Rodriguez; her children Hector G., Esmeralda M. and Miguel A. Rodriguez and her grandchildren Alexa, Miguel A. Jr. and Giancarlo Rodriguez. She is preceded by her siblings Conception Corral, Virginia, Maria, Gonzalo and Roberto Martinez.

Yoli was born on December 17, 1949 in Cd. Juarez. Chihuahua Mexico to Inocencio Martinez and Esperanza Loza de Martinez. She met the love of her life at the age of seven years old whom she married on October 4, 1971 to Hector F. Rodriguez. Together they welcomed four children Maria, Hector, Esmeralda and Miguel, who were the most important part of her life. Yolanda and Hector retained a marriage of 47 years in which she was an exceptional wife, faithful, loyal and committed to her family. Yolanda was a loving, noble and exceptional mother to her children and grandchildren Alexa, Miguel Jr. and Giancarlo.

She enjoyed life, loved dancing, traveling and dining, the arts, crafts and flower arrangements which allowed her to enjoy her job. As the oldest of 9 siblings, she helped her parents to support all her younger siblings during her early adult years. Due to her charismatic and friendly character she was able to effortlessly meet and make friends anywhere she went. Her family paid this tribute to her, "Yolanda was one of the kindest people you could ever meet, she opened her heart and was always willing to help others thru donations and those in need, she will be sorely missed"
