

Yolanda R. Sanchez

December 26, 1945 - June 20, 2009

Yolanda Ramirez Sanchez born in Austin, Texas December 26, 1945 called by our Lord June 20, 2009 at age 63. She is survived by her husband Wilfred and her two children Veronica & Anthony, her sisters Evelyn & Cynthia, her brother Robert, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. She went to meet our Lord surrounded by family. She departed knowing she was loved by all, just as she gave her love to them. She was a very giving person always thinking of other people. She was known for her talent with crafts as is known by all who have samples of her talent.

My Beloved Yolie, we will miss you but our love will not diminish with time. Your memories will be with us always until we are together again. In the meantime tell our Lord you will be happy to add decorative touches to Heaven. Don't forget to add a rooster to your own wings.

“ Dear Cousin Yoli,
I am so saddened we won't see you any longer at family functions.
Yes, I know, I was hardly there, but when I was it was always wonderful to see you. I will miss hearing you say 'mija' and 'mijo' to all the kids. May God bless and keep “ Yolie, my coffee drinking buddy, I will miss you always, but you are in my heart forever. Think you for your sweetness, kindness and for always being at all of our life events.

All my love, Tia Linda

“ I miss you so much Mom. But you are no longer in pain and the endless graces of heaven are now yours. Be good up there, say hi to grandma, tata, and all of our family. I'll never forget you Mom. I love you.

“ I love you Aunt Yolie and you will be missed. It will be hard to say good-bye to you, but I know you are in a better place. Please give my mom a big kiss for me when you see her and tell her we love here and miss her. Love Anna
