“ It was great to have her in CAPS. She was one of my favorite people. Always sweet and a great bridge player, even when she got to the nursing home. All @ CAPS will miss her. How lucky we were to know her. I bet your playing bridge in heaven. Love you

“ It was indeed an honor to know Lou. She was a fabulous Bridge player and really a gem. At 98, she put us all to shame with her card playing ability. We miss her. God bless her and her family.
