

Yukiko Gallagher

January 9, 2015 - January 9, 2015

Yukiko Gallagher, age 77, passed away peacefully in her sleep on January 4, 2015

at her residence in San Antonio, TX.

Yukiko was born on October 9, 1937, in Saitama Prefecture, Japan to her parents Isaburo and Tsue Yahagi. She brightened the life of her husband Bill, with their marriage on September 1, 1971, in Tokyo, Japan. Her first move to America was in 1975 when she came to San Antonio, TX. As the wife of a U.S.

Serviceman, she accompanied him on various assignments, which included time in Okinawa, Japan, a second tour in San Antonio, then off to Misawa in Aomori Prefecture, Japan, with the final assignment to Cocoa Beach, Florida. She moved permanently to San Antonio in August 1992. She was a member of the Soka Gakkai Buddhist organization and follower of Nichiren Daishonin's Buddhism, for over 50 years.

She was very attached to her constant companions, her dogs. She enjoyed doing karaoke with her friends. She is survived by her sister, Chieko Iwasaki of Tochigi-Prefecture Japan, and her husband of 43 years William in San Antonio, TX.

Funeral arrangements have been made through Mission Park Funeral

Chapels North on Cherry Ridge. There will be no formal viewing and she will be interred at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery.
