“ My heartfelt & sincerest condolences to the family of Yvonne Cervantes (Husband, children, spouses, grandchildren, and family) as well as her friends and beloved Work Familia, Mr. Doningo Vara Jr./Vara Chevrolet Family. She was truly an angel. Thank you for taking care of so many in life and for your compassion in giving from your heart to many underprivileged children during Christmas time as well as everyone in the dealership. May God/Jesus give your loved ones, friends, and coworkers the love, care, comfort, and strength to carry on your legacy. Yvonne will live forever in cherished memories. Again, my most heartfelt condolences for I feel your pain as I lost my father a month ago as I held his hand as he slipped into the arms of God/Jesus with my brother, and my loved ones in Heaven. Take care. God Bless. Prayers and hugs for everyone who miss Yvonne. If one thing gives me comfort its the wisdom that: It's never goodbye but until we meet our loved ones again. Aloha Oe ”

Every word is true. She helped so many in life. Many underprivileged children/families were so very grateful to her & Mr. Domingo Vara, his family, and the entire Vara Chevrolet dealership. I know right now it must hurt losing your parent. No amount of words can ease the pain; for I truly understand as I write this and I truly miss my father. But the comfort of knowing his cancer is gone & he's healthy and that one day I will see him again brings me comfort. Please always hold onto that hope & faith that it's never goodbye but we'll see each other again. Your sweet mom will always be with you in spirit. Always protecting her loved ones and sending her love. Trust me when I say you will feel her presence whether it's through the sunshine, gentle breeze, a red cardinal /butterfly visiting you, beautiful rainbow, in a beautiful dream, or looking at the stars in the night sky. She will forever be your angel. Take care, be good to yourselves, and live life in her name & memory. You are her legacy. She is free of pain with all the angels in Heaven. Prayers 🙏 & hugs. I empathize your pain/loss. 😭
