

Yvonne R. Uriegas

March 4, 1967 - June 11, 2022

Yvonne Uriegas was born March 4, 1967 and went to heaven June 11, 2022 after a long illness. She attended St. Leo's Catholic School and Providence High School. After working for physicians in office management, Yvonne pursued her passion for medicine and became an RN. She prided herself in being a strong advocate for her patients and their rights.

Another of Yvonne's talents was as a vocalist. She intensely loved music and sharing her beautiful voice with others. Accompanied by her sister Josie, Yvonne sang during Mass at St. Leo's and St. Philips of Jesus Catholic Church for many years. She also had a fondness for watching westerns and mystery shows. Above all, Yvonne loved being with family and often got the board games started at gatherings. Her silly commentary and laugh will be greatly missed.

Yvonne was preceded in death by her eldest brother, Tony Uriegas; father, Tom Uriegas; beloved mother, Carmen Rea Uriegas; and great-niece Gabriella Lerma. She is survived by her sister, Josie Martinez (Robert); brothers, Albert Uriegas (Theresa), Frank Uriegas (Velma); sister-in-law Sylvia Uriegas Contreras; nephews, Paul Lerma (Leticia), Brian Uriegas (Deanna); Mark Uriegas (Jochelle), Eric Martinez, Adam Martinez, Jarrett Uriegas; niece, Natalie Uriegas; and several great- nephews and nieces.

The family would like to extend heartfelt appreciation to the nurses, aides and staff at McCullough Hall for their compassionate care of Yvonne. During her stay at McCullough Hall, Yvonne was reunited with the Sisters of the Congregation of Divine Providence, reigniting her love of the Sisters and her desire to become an Associate of the CDPs. After going through the formation process while a resident, Yvonne was commissioned as an Associate on the Feast Day of Blessed John Martin Moye on May 1, 2022.

A visitation will be held Thursday, June 16, 2022, beginning at 5:00 P.M. followed by a recitation of the rosary at 6:30 P.M. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. A funeral Mass will be celebrated Friday, June 18, 2022, 10:00 am at St. Lawrence Catholic Church. Internment will follow at Mission Burial Park South.
