Henry

Zelda Mae Looney Henry, age 79, passed away on Thursday, December 27, 2012 in San Antonio, Texas. Born in Hext, Texas on May 4, 1933, she was the daughter of Melvin W. Looney and Mina Goble Looney. Zelda was raised on the family ranch in Hext and attended Menard High School. While living in San Antonio she met the love of her life, Earle Henry; they married in 1955. After more than 15 years as an Air Force wife the Henrys returned to San Antonio, where she and Earle lived until 1995. After Zelda retired they decided to move back to her home town of Menard. They had a great time ranching and being close to family and friends after all those years traveling the world. They moved to Boerne over 4 years ago to be closer to family. Preceded in death by her husband, parents and sister, Jo Ellen Wiemers, Zelda is survived by brother Carroll Looney of Menard; son Mike Hurley of Fredericksburg; daughter Dewana Butler of Tampa, Florida; daughter Mary Woods and husband Larry of Boerne; grandson Aaron Butler and wife Jennifer of San Antonio; grandson Jeremiah Butler and wife Kayla of Houston; and great-grandchild Mackenzie Butler of San Antonio. The service will take place at the First Baptist Church, Menard, Texas, on Sunday, December 30, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. with interment at the Hext Cemetery. The family gratefully acknowledges the hard work, dedication and loving care of Chet Simonetti of St. Petersburg, Florida. Chet is a long-time family friend who was the full-time caregiver for Earle and Zelda in their final years. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to First Baptist Church of Menard, their church home during retirement.
