

Zeolide La Coste Higdon II

March 18, 1918 - September 3, 2007

Miss Zeolide La Coste Higdon II has passed on to her final rest September 3, 2007. She will be missed and remembered by not only her family but also the scores of people she has affected during a life defined by service to others. She had a forty-four year career in Civil Service, participation in numerous activities at Christ Episcopal Church including longtime service and past leadership roles in The Daughters of the King Guild. Miss Higdon never turned her back on strays or those in need, whether the four-legged variety or family members. Few families have ever been able to claim anything close to an Aunt Zee to have inspired them with her taste, wit or generosity. She had lifelong passions for history, family heritage and antique collecting, all of which she shared with the younger generations, sparking their imaginations and imparting her knowledge in a soft southern accent. She was the guardian angel of our family, a sometimes under-appreciated gift to all of us. She will be missed greatly. Miss Higdon was preceded in death by her parents Joel Burrell Sr. & Zeolide La Coste I Higdon and her brother J.B. Jr. & Georgia Higdon. Miss Higdon is survived by three generations of nieces and nephews, her cousins in Alabama and the friends she has made a long the way. Her immediate living family includes Charleen & John Ramsey; Michele & Fred Blood; Keith Higdon; Jeff Higdon; Clay, Lisa, Hayley & John Presley Kinsner; Page Nelson; Deron Nelson; Tory & Stacy McWright; Tyree & Cody Stewart; Michael & Hayden Blood as well as her caregivers Janet Greene and Sharon Dobbs. Miss Higdon's cat, Kristie, will now reside with Ms. Greene. A visitation will be held from 6:00 - 9:00 PM on Thursday, September 6, 2007 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.

“ Aunt Zee was a lovely smiling presence at my granddaughter's graduation celebration this year. She always had a big smile and a little wave for me. We will miss her, and treasure the memory of her steadfast warmth.

“ How fortunate for me to have gotten to know Zee...I can just hear her telling the angels how to make guacamole the right way. It was fun to see her as the center of the family as well as the center of affection. Save a place for us, Zee.
