

Zoila G. Rodriguez

June 27, 1928 - June 22, 2022

Zoila G. Rodriguez went to be with the Lord on June 22, 2022 at the age of 93. She was born on June 27, 1928 in Sombreretillo, Nuevo Leon, Mexico to Hipolito Garza and Josefa Garza. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Julio B. Rodriguez and siblings Anita, Mina, Rosalinda, Amada, Salomon, Alvaro, Juan, Federico and Martin. She is survived by her children Luis G. Rodriguez (Jane) and Julia R. Benavides (Jesse), stepson Julio (Sandy); siblings Modesto, Omar and Lupe; grandchildren Jesse (Leslie), Jennifer, Jacob, Luis (Kate), Rachel and Michael and great-grandchildren CJ, Claudio, Eliana, Cecilia, Brennan and Maryn.

She will be greatly missed by her relatives, friends and neighbors who knew and loved her.

Being the oldest of 13, she helped raise her siblings until she married. She became a young widow when her husband passed after three years of marriage. She was left with their young son, Luis, and expecting their daughter, Julia. She dedicated her life to them in every possible way. She was resourceful, thrifty, generous and always looked to her great Catholic faith to give her direction in all her needs. She was a member of St. Margaret Mary senior center for many years where she enjoyed playing bingo and loteria and socializing with her friends. Her Singer pedal sewing machine was a gift from her husband. With it, she sewed for herself, family and friends who would seek her to do zippers, buttons and hems. She loved going to casinos, watching her Spurs and being a Longhorn Mom and Grandmother. Her flower gardens were her prized possession. Her green thumb was extra fertile for every seed or cutting she planted would grow with beautiful blooms. Her gardens were full of color and a variety of plants. She would start cuttings and share them with all who wanted one. The gardens of heaven are now in full bloom with her arrival.

“ I remember my Mom and I going to Aunt Zoila’s house on Weaver to visit. They could talk for hours, but I didn’t mind because I could tell they enjoyed each other’s company. She was a nice person who will be missed. May she Rest In Peace.
